Important Glendale Transit Information

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Glendale Transit passengers have several exciting options to get on board with the arrival of the new light rail system.

Metro light rail service begins its regular schedule on Monday, Dec. 29. Glendale residents will have a direct connection to the light rail station at 19th Avenue and Montebello Road near Christown Spectrum Mall through the use of Valley Metro bus route 60 - Bethany Home Road. In addition, Valley Metro is introducing a new express bus route, called 576 – Northwest Valley Montebello Rail Station Express service. This new service will directly connect Glendale residents to the end-of-the-line light rail station at 19th Avenue and Montebello.

Three morning trips will travel from Glendale to this light rail station via I-17 along with three afternoon return trips. Service begins at Arrowhead Towne Center and Arrowhead Community Church of Joy. Riders may also take this route from Phoenix to Glendale.

For more information, For more information about these changes, visit www.valleymetro.org or call Valley Metro at 602.253.5000.
